GROUP TRAVEL ITINERARY: EXMOUTH ART & CREATIVITY TRAIL

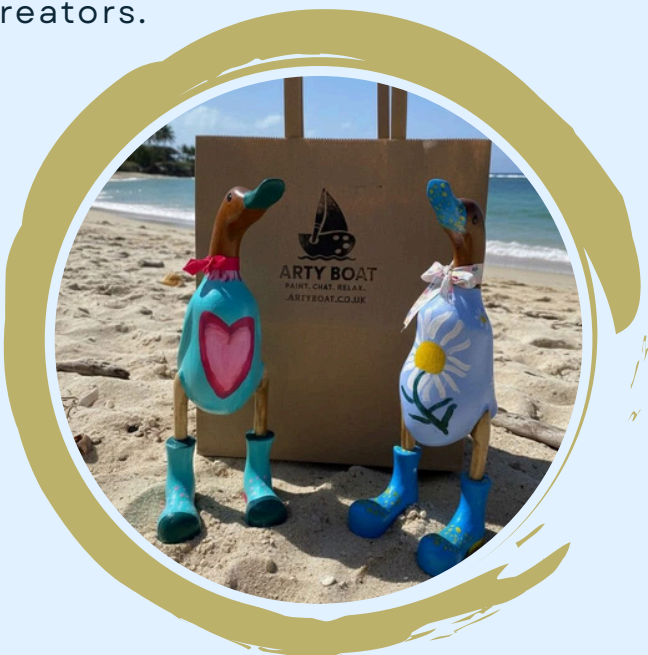

IDEAL FOR: Art lovers, creative groups, and visitors seeking a cultural day out
Discover Exmouth's creative side with local art, creative expression, and independent makers.

MORNING:

ARTY BOAT - CREATIVE WORKSHOP

Start your day at Arty Boat with a hands-on creative workshop. Sessions are relaxed, fun, and suitable for all skill levels—from confident artists to complete beginners.

Afterwards, take a gentle stroll along the waterfront and enjoy the coastal scenery that inspires so many local creators.

LATE MORNING:

ELLA'S STUDIO (SIDESHORE)

Continue your trail with a visit to Ella's Studio at Sideshore. This vibrant space showcases colourful, contemporary pieces inspired by nature and coastal living.

It's a wonderful spot to browse, enjoy the atmosphere, chat with the artist (if she's around), and pick up unique prints or original works.

LUNCH:

HEYDAYS

A relaxed all-day dining spot on Exmouth's Sideshore with sea views, serving creative dishes made from locally-sourced ingredients - perfect for a leisurely midday meal.

OR

RISE

An artisanal bakery and café right next door to Heydays, offering freshly baked sourdough, pastries, hearty sandwiches and excellent coffee - ideal for a lighter lunch or seaside bite.

AFTERNOON:

SEA DOG ART

Visit Sea Dog Art, known for bold, expressive pieces that capture the drama and character of the sea. It's a mustsee for anyone who loves striking artwork.

EXMOUTH ARTISAN GALLERY

Continue your art trail at the Exmouth Artisan Gallery, home to a diverse collection of local makers. Discover ceramics, jewellery, textiles, paintings, sculpture, and more—an ideal place to find beautifully crafted, oneofakind pieces while supporting Devon's thriving creative community.

STREET ART TO SPOT ALONG THE WAY

As you wander through town, keep an eye out for colourful street art by Gary "GARF" Cook. His art has transformed Exmouth with striking murals on landmark buildings and interactive art trails such as the RNLI Welly Trail and the Voice of the Exe Walking Trail.
